

West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection presented this facility with its environmental award in 2004 due to the facility's focus on the environment through the products it produces and its environmentally-sound business practices.

Throughout the last decade, Toyota Motor Manufacturing, West Virginia has understood that people are the most valuable resources available, and it continues to develop their talents and strengths for future success in the auto industry.

Mr. Speaker, again I want to congratulate Toyota for this important milestone. We are proud to have them as West Virginia corporate citizens, and I look forward to celebrating similar anniversaries in the many years ahead.

IN RECOGNITION OF GEORGE
WEBB ROWELL

HON. MIKE ROGERS

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 11, 2006

Mr. ROGERS of Alabama. Mr. Speaker, I respectfully ask the House's attention today to recognize George Webb Rowell of Lee County, Alabama, in anticipation of his 90th birthday on May 31, 2006.

In 1916, Mr. Rowell was the seventh born child to a poor farming family in Loachapoka, Alabama, where he resides today. He was the only son to serve overseas in World War II, beginning his service with the U.S. Army in June of 1941. He served in the 1st Army under General Eisenhower, with the 3rd Armored Division in the 703rd Tank Battalion. It was his division that landed on the beach in Normandy on D-Day, fought in the Battle of the Bulge, entered France and marched through Belgium to Germany to defeat the enemy. Mr. Rowell spent four years and four months in the Army, and his service was awarded with a Silver Star.

When he returned home he attended a trade school to learn farming techniques. He and his wife raised five children on a small farm. Mr. Rowell is a devout Christian, a patriot, and an American Hero to his family and his country.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for the House's attention to the life of George Rowell today, and I thank my colleagues for helping honor an American who so bravely served our Nation as a member of our Greatest Generation.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO SALOME
JARVIS

HON. JON C. PORTER

OF NEVADA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 11, 2006

Mr. PORTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Salome Jarvis and her service to the health care community.

Salome has a long and distinguished career dating back 20 years. She received her certificate in Gerontology from Chaffey College in California in 1985 and also took numerous nursing courses at San Bernardino Community College. After working in a California hospital for nearly 15 years, Salome moved to the Las Vegas Area in 1991 and began working at the Boulder City Hospital. She subsequently obtained her National Certification as an Activities Director. The professional affiliations of which she is a member include the National Association of Activities Professionals and the Southern Nevada Activity Professionals Associations, both of which she serves as an officer of the board. Salome is also very active in the community primary working with programs designed to promote positive change for youths.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to honor Salome Jarvis for her distinguished record of service to the health care community. I wish her the best with her future efforts.

IN HONOR OF THE 40TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE ZION CHAPEL MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 11, 2006

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor and recognition of the leaders and members, past and present, of Zion Chapel Missionary Baptist Church of Cleveland, Ohio, as they celebrate forty years of faith, guidance and support, embracing citizens of all ages within our Cleveland community and far beyond.

Zion Chapel Missionary Baptist Church was founded in the spring of 1966, when a small group of devoted Christians met at the home of Reverend and Mrs. Rudy York and decided that an organized mission of faith and service was needed in the neighborhood. On Monday, May 2, 1966, the Church was officially established and the Reverend Robert M. Berry was called upon to lead as the first Pastor.

Reverend Berry guided the early days of the church with commitment and compassion. When he became ill, Reverend Thomas Shearer served as interim pastor, and did so with great care and dedication. In June of 1969, Reverend George O. Stewart was called to serve as Pastor. For 37 years, Reverend Stewart has led this congregation with grace, energy and steadfast faith in the resilience and goodness of the human heart, raising lives into the light of self-awareness, forgiveness and service to others. Reverend Stewart's kind heart and charismatic demeanor inspires thousands of churchgoers every week. His dynamic leadership is reflected in faith-based initiatives for families, children and teens; is evidenced within a congregation that continues to flourish; and is visible in structural expansions that include a new fellowship hall, new parking lots and new residential properties.

Mr. Speaker and Colleagues, please join me in honor and recognition of every member and leader, past and present, of the Zion Chapel Missionary Baptist Church, as they celebrate 40 years of faith, hope and healing. The guidance and compassion offered here serves to strengthen the lives of countless families and individuals, and offers light and hope along Lee Road and horizons beyond.

CONGRATULATING ATTORNEY
CHARLES BUFALINO FOR 50 YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE
WILKES-BARRE LAW AND LI-BRARY ASSOCIATION

HON. PAUL E. KANJORSKI

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 11, 2006

Mr. KANJORSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to ask you and my esteemed colleagues in the House of Representatives to pay tribute to Attorney Charles Bufalino, of West Pittston, Pennsylvania, on the occasion of his 50th anniversary of membership in the Wilkes-Barre Law and Library Association.

A graduate of Wyoming Seminary Preparatory School, Villanova University and the University of Pennsylvania Law School, Attorney Bufalino was admitted to the practice of law in 1956 and he continues to be an active practitioner before the Luzerne County Court, all of the appellate courts of Pennsylvania and the United States Courts for the Third Circuit and the Middle District of Pennsylvania. He is admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States and is a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

Attorney Bufalino has been involved in precedent-setting litigation involving both First Amendment rights and freedom of the press as well as workers' compensation law.

A First Amendment landmark case was considered by the United States Supreme Court and a workers' compensation case was decided earlier this year by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.

Attorney Bufalino served as special assistant attorney general, Luzerne County solicitor, law clerk to the late Judge Harold Flannery and as solicitor to many municipalities.

The Wilkes-Barre Law and Library Association was located in the county Court House located on Wilkes-Barre's Public Square from 1859 to 1909 when it was moved to the second floor of the current county Court House at 200 N. River Street in Wilkes-Barre.

The Law Library contains over 20,000 volumes of law books, reports and journals. The Law Library also operates the Luzerne Legal Register, the law journal of Luzerne County and the official reporter of the decisions of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County. A lawyer referral service is also operated out of the law library for people who need a lawyer but do not know whom to contact.

The Law and Library Association also operates a charitable foundation that supports charitable and humanitarian projects throughout Luzerne County. It is intended to enhance the public's understanding and appreciation of the legal system in Luzerne County, ensure access to legal information and representation to all members of the Luzerne County community and foster good relations between members of the Bar, Judiciary and the public.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in congratulating Attorney Bufalino for a half century of membership in the Wilkes-Barre Law and Library Association. His devoted service and the service of other distinguished legal practitioners have enabled the Association to grow and thrive and be a continuous source of support to its members.
